CONGRATULATIONS SOUTHWESTERN

As Southwestern observes its 150th anniversary, it is appropriate that we not only celebrate the University's rich heritage of leadership and service, but that we also contemplate the challenge of providing an undergraduate experience of unquestioned excellence in the 21st century.

As we celebrate this 150th anniversary, it is important that we look ahead to the challenges of the 21st century. I believe the greatest challenge posed by today's diverse, complex world community is that of preparing individuals for responsible global citizenship.

To develop conscientious citizens with a strong global perspective, Southwestern encourages students to pursue a broad-based, value-centered education during the undergraduate years and offers opportunities at home and abroad to complement that experience.

The frontier of the American West was a place of independence — rewarding a sense of rugged individualism. Global frontiers are places of interdependence — calling for cooperation and understanding within a highly competitive and complex international environment. Southwestern is in front ranks of those colleges in this country seeking to educate a new generation of leaders. We believe that the Southwestern University experience provides a common core of values which has sustained past generations within the University family, and we are confident it has the ability to sustain each new generation as it deals increasingly with change, ambiguity, and difficult choices.

We have all looked forward to our Sesquicentennial celebration, and I hope that it has been an occasion for the renewal of our efforts to prepare each new generation for leadership in the 21st century. — President Roy B. Shilling, Jr.

Dr. Roy B. Shilling, Jr.
President
Southwestern University
Georgetown, Texas 78627

Dear Dr. Shilling:

I would like to join with students, faculty and alumni of Southwestern University in the celebration of 150 years of dedicated service to the people of Texas.

The impact that Southwestern University has had on the lives of so many is immeasurable. The history of Texas is one of pride, courage and determination and these are the same qualities that have made Southwestern University such an important and vital part of our educational system in Texas.

I know that the next 150 years will be even more successful than the last, and I am delighted to join with you all in celebrating this special occasion. Best wishes for your celebration and congratulations.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Bentsen

Dear Friends:

It is indeed a pleasure to congratulate as you celebrate your 150th anniversary.

Our nation is great because it is rich in opportunity, and the key to the future is quality education. For 150 years, Southwestern University has provided a professional staff and a vision of education rich in ambition and initiative. As a former professor, I take a special interest in education, and I commend you for the firm educational foundation you have provided for thousands of students.

Your efforts toward educational excellence may be viewed as an example to all. Best wishes in your anniversary celebration. It is a pleasure to serve as your United States Senator.

Respectfully yours,

Phil Gramm

STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AUSTIN, TEXAS 78701

WILLIAM P. CLEMENTS, JR.
GOVERNOR

August 23, 1989

Greetings:

As Governor, it is a pleasure to acknowledge the one hundred-fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Southwestern University.

This institution has the distinction of being the first university established in Texas. As such, it has played a pioneering role in higher education in Texas. Education is very important in our increasingly more complex society, and I am glad to see Southwestern University contributing to the development of the future leaders of our state.

Mrs. Clements joins me in saluting Southwestern University and sending our best wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

William P. Clements, Jr.
Governor

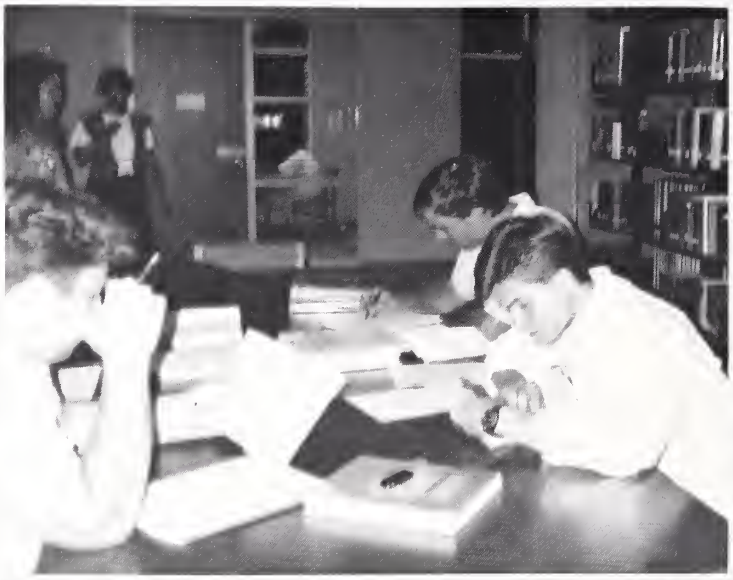
In the library, Chris Casson, David Dickie, and Julian Fertitta study diligently.



Taking a study break on the campus sidewalk, here lies Jason McWhirter.

"Maybe they misplace all my mail," thinks Rachael Sandifer and Kim Essary.

STUDENT LIFE

Some freshmen show just how talented they really are!

HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

At Southwestern, Homecoming is one of the big events of the year. The celebration includes Sing, comprised of many entertaining musical acts, the Homecoming parade on Saturday morning, and distinguished alumni who come to participate and view the activities.

University Sing presented by the Southwestern University Student Foundation, was a grand success. The Residence Life staff took first place with "The Common Element." Delta Delta Delta's "All I Ever Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten," and Pi Kappa Alpha's "Best of The Beach Boys," won second and third places respectively.

Pi Kappa Alpha won first place in the parade with their "Pike Brigade," in their pajamas with toothbrushes in hand.

The class of 1939 was honored during this years festivities. The entertainer Mary Brooks performed on Saturday and the volleyball team played against St. Mary's. No matter if you were an alumna or student, Homecoming was lots of fun.

The Residence Life staff "flicks their Bics" to the wonderful Southwestern Commons.

Delta Omicron sings a playful song during their eight minute act in Sing.

The entertainer Mary Brooks played for the campus on the Saturday during Homecoming.

PiKA John Eagle shows the audience a lovely smile as well as a feminine pose.

"Justification for Higher Education" was the Tri Delt's parade theme.

The Zeta's take a "Roll Through Old S.U." during Sing and the parade.

Joined by her parents for the weekend, Judy Allbright enjoys the festivities.

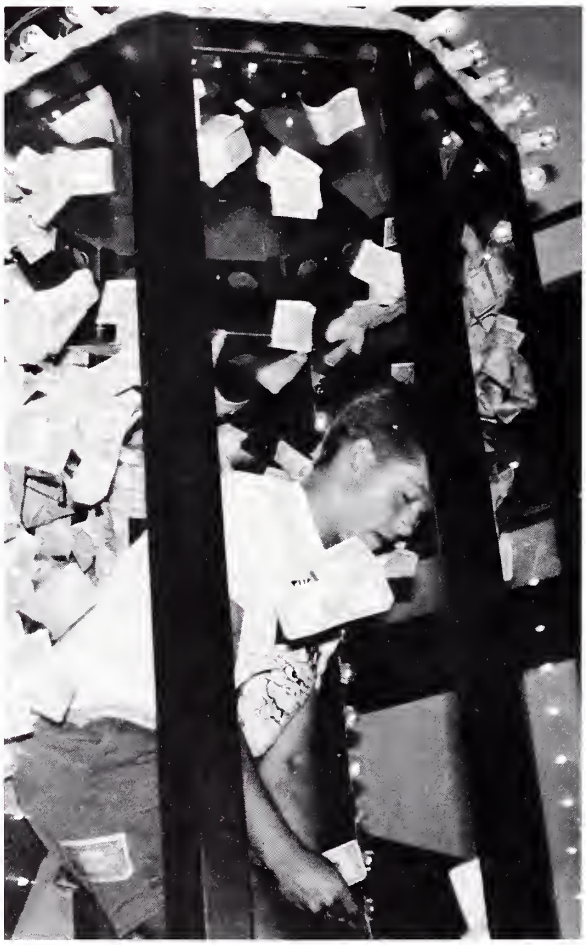
CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Southwestern is full of fun activities year-long. From the day a student moves in the residence hall on that first day of school their freshman year to the day they graduate, the campus plans entertainment for everyone's enjoyment.

The Union Program Council schedules many outstanding acts for the campus. From fall to spring, musical performers such as The Killer Bees, Regency, Southern Wind, and Barbara Bailey Hutchinson played for the students. Acts such as Jeff Dunham, a puppeteer and The Royal Lichtenstein ¼ Ring * Sidewalk Circus entertained the audience on campus. Another fun event was Blizzard of Bucks, where students had the chance to win money in the money machine.

There is always something going on every month out of the school year for the entertainment of the students. Southwestern tries to add fun to every student's life as well as a great education.

Jeff Dunham and Peanut entertain the freshmen during the orientation weekend.



Grabbing for as much cash as possible, Paul Traeger is the big money winner.

Michael Johnson and The Killer Bees jam with Chris Davis.

With his Blue Suede Shoes on, Steve Otillar dips his date as they dance.

Southern Wind played a great concert in the spring for the campus.

Boppin' to the beat, Janie Arwine and Chad Schiffner dance in the Union.

THOSE LLLLLONG WEEKDAYS

Buzz ... The alarm clock rings at 7:00 ... snooze ... 7:10 ... 7:30 ... 7:50 and you are late for your eight o'clock class one more time. You run across campus and walk in the class with your hair sticking to your head and sheet marks on your face. Pop quiz ... great!

The weekdays seem to last forever. Between homework, classes, and tests the week goes on and on. There is hope during the weekdays however, a student can relax and eat some enjoyable food in the commons. Then once again back to studying.

Stress usually hits the campus about two weeks after students arrive for the fall semester and ends about two weeks into summer vacation. From your freshman year with Freshman Symposium, professors seem to colaborate and decide to have tests and have papers due at the busiest times. No matter if you know about them you put them off until the last minute. The weekdays blur into one another and all anyone can think about is the weekend.

"Yuk! I hate homework!" exclaims Paige Bonner and Stefanie Maurer.

Relaxing between classes Vicki Vanderwind and Karen Holloman try to get a few rays.

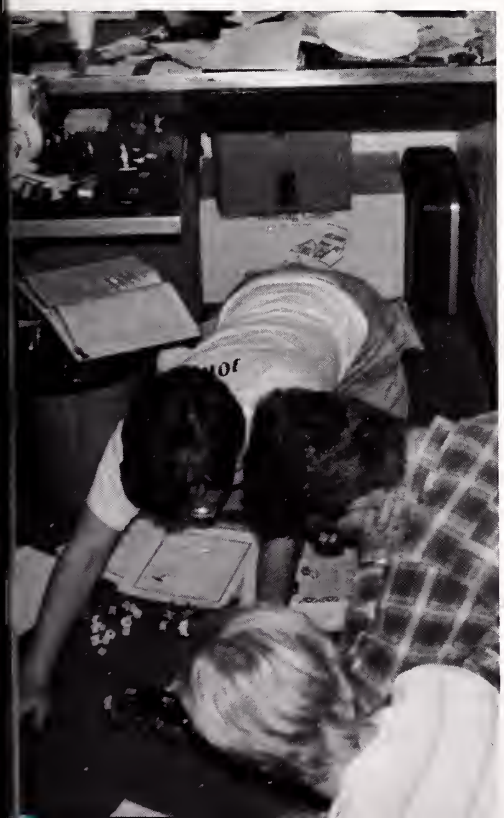
Looking a little fatigued, Mark Grafton stumbles to his dorm room.

Tests, tests, tests! Freshmen Symposium becomes tiring after a semester.



Yum! Christine Caunter really looks excited about eating in the commons for lunch.

Looking on while everyone finishes their homework, Suzanne Bryant seems thrilled.

THOSE SHORT WEEKENDS

How do you spell relief, w.e.e.k.e.n.d.s! That last Friday class ends and a one-hundred pound weight has been lifted. For approxiamently forty-eight hours, relaxing, partying, sleeping, and almost always rolling is on alot of students' minds.

There is not much to do in Georgetown besides cruise the Sonic for some "real" food, shop at the ever popular, newly-built Wal-Mart, and visit those scenic backroads. Some students drive to Austin to stroll the mall or some other type of fun activity. Some may visit their boyfriends or girlfriends at other schools or go home for some home-cooking and someone else to wash their clothes. A large majority of students hang around at the various fraternaty houses where there is usually something going on, whether there is a party scheduled or not.

No matter what students do for their weekend activities, everyone enjoys the break from the stressful weekdays.

At the Kappa Sig house, Kevin McKinney, Joseph Wilson, and Joseph Strickland jam.

A popular place is the new Wal-Mart. Georgetown was dull without it.

Renee Mullins, Laura Bledsoe, Melissa Cathcart, and Chad Schiffner take it easy.

With that face, is Lisa Smith ready for the weekend or what?

Demonstrating The Hustle, Sonja Peterson shows everyone how it is done.

Rolling is always a popular weekend activity! Everyone needs to experience it.

THE COLLEGE EXPERIENCE

There is nothing like the Southwestern University experience. Your parents say, "Adios" on that first day of school and you are left to experience and discover the world on your own. You face registration, which is probably one of the most complicated procedures you will ever experience. The Freshman get oriented and the upperclassmen see there old pals again. Moving in the dorms is quite interesting because you finally get to meet that mysterious roommate and you get to take showers in your community bathroom.

Students experience the commons - which is an adventure within itself. Everyone gets a mailbox key and if you are very lucky you will get mail at least once a month. Meeting new people is always fun. Meeting new people of the opposite sex is even more fun!

The college experience is different and interesting for everyone. It can have its ups and downs but it is still one of the best times in anyone's life.

Moving in is always fun agrees Robert Phillips and Stephen Loden.

A helpless student pleads with Dr. Timothy O'Neill to be allowed in his class.

The thought of the "Fresh"-"Men" shown by Lewis Snell and Jason Wolf.

Demonstrating their talent Renee Young and Jesus Frausto concentrate on the game.

A friendly reminder in the college experience . . . Don't take the law for granted.

Smiling for that ever famous I.D. card, Nancy McCorpin shows her dimples.

"I got a package!!!" yells Julie Jacobson. Her Mom still loves her!

Student Activities Superwoman Dorita Hatchett and Cathy Fuller grin for the camera.

Chef Bob and his assitant can't wait to serve that Roman Bean Casserole for lunch!

Dr. Leonard Giesecke leads the recessional for Matriculation Convocation.

These fine young boys are taking the bus back to school.

As close as the real thing Ric Wade and George Boudreau will ever get.

Which one is the puppet?

RESIDENCE LIFE

The Residence Life staff shows us they have it under control.

The Resident Assistants and Sophomore Assistants are para-professionals of the Student Life Staff and are key elements on campus. Throughout the year they sponsor various activities for the campus, as well as for the community.

They have mixers for their halls so that students can meet one another. Members invite guest speakers, as well as present sessions such as date rape awareness, suicide, and AIDS awareness. There is usually a faculty sleep-over and an all campus sleep-over sponsored by the staff. They provide toys for the Mary Bailey Center, which cares for needy children, and at Thanksgiving, they make baskets to give for to needy families in the community. During the week of Halloween, Residence Life has a Halloween Carnival for the campus and community in which the proceeds benefit the needy. This year the staff won the University Sing with "The Common Element," which was a musical skit about The Commons.

The Director of Residence Life is Sherry Gutman. She has two Assistant Directors, Shelia Komorowski and David Newell. Shelia heads the east residence halls, McCullough, Mabee, Kurth, Sneed Suites, and Laura Kuykendall. David is responsible for the west residence halls, Herman Brown, Moody Shearn, and Ruter.

The East Residence Halls Assistants in Kurth are Georgianne Hewett, first floor; Suzanne Stahl, second floor; and Carol Garcia, third floor. In Laura Kuykendall, Mary Ann Humphreys, first floor east; Vanessa Davis, first floor west; Kelli Bremer, second floor east; Martha Atkins, second floor west; Jeni Gwinn, third floor east; and Traci Astolfo, third floor west. Mabee RA's are Lauren Davis, first floor east; Lee Merritt, first floor west; Jaysn Jameson, second floor seat; Bobbi Buffington, second floor west; Cathy Fuller, third floor east; and Aileen Oandasan, third floor west. Judy Manriquez is RA in McCullough and Lisa Johnston is RA in Sneed Suites.

East Residence Halls Sophomore Assistants in Kurth are Nisa Sharma, first floor; Lisa Smith, second floor; and Robin Joynes, third floor. In Laura Kuykendall, Tracy Richbourg, second floor east; Elizabeth Holland, second floor west; Neil Patterson, third floor east; and Julie Branch, third floor west. In McCullough Sheri Stice is SA.

West Residence Halls Assistants in Herman Brown are Mike Frontz, first floor; Saul Laredo, second floor; and Shawn Wiltse, third floor. In Moody Shearn, Judy Allbright, first floor; Marcos Veloz, second floor; Marla Pfeiffer, third floor. In Ruter, Scott Griscom, first floor; Chip Pierce, second floor; and Brent Bledsoe, third floor.

These studs are west SA's Scott Streitman, David Robinson, and Brian Hunt.

These beautiful girls are Julie Branch and Traci Astolfo.

Looking cool in their shades are Kelli Bremer, Martha Atkins, and Jeni Gwinn.

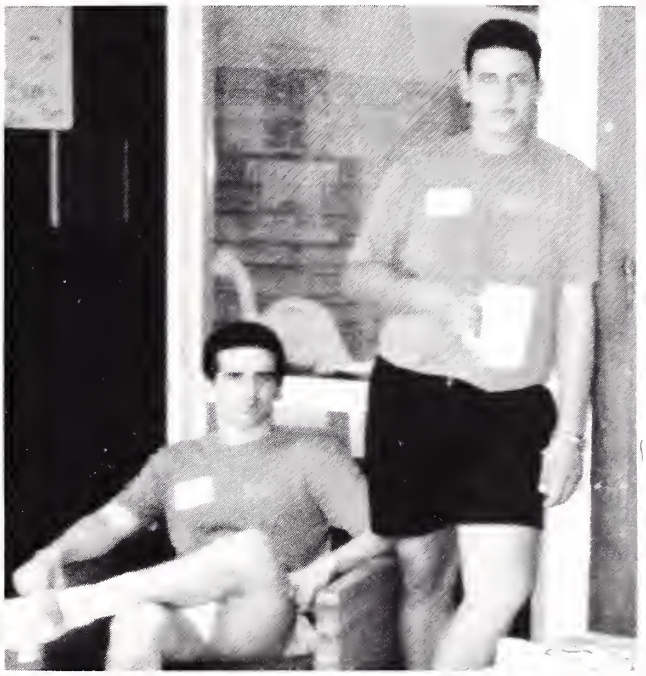
Posing as their favorite dietary supplement are Kelli Bremer and Carol Garcia.

The winners of Sing. The Residence Life Staff in "The Common Element."

These two lovely beings, Neil Patterson and Jeni Gwinn are a sight for sore eyes.

RA Georgianne Hewett helps a confused student with pre-registration.

"We're Bad!," state Sophomore Assistants Elizabeth Holland and Neil Patterson.



Standing by the dorms, Brian Hunt and Humberto Saenz await their SA duties.

Showing their gymnastic talents are Martha Atkins and Kelli Bremer.

This cutie is Residence Assistant Suzanne Stahl.

Sean Quintana, Dan Fielder, Kenneth O'Sullivan, and Scott Woods are happy.

Hoping for show business Gena Watson and Marla Lade bow for the camera.

Keeping up with the news, Doug Dixon reads his paper.

Registration is sooo much fun, especially for freshmen.

The Southwestern Cheerleaders cheer for the S.U. Pirates.

These Student Foundation smiling faces are Roxanne Barnes, Miguel Zorrilla, and Shannon Sims.

ORGANIZATIONS

Christina Corovessis and Paul Traeger participate in Blizzard of Bucks.

MEGAPHONE-LITERARY MAGAZINE

SOU'WESTER

Southwestern's student publications are The Megaphone "The Southwestern Magazine", and The Sou'wester.

The Megaphone is a student weekly newspaper which seeks to present announcements of coming events, report the news and happenings in the different phases of University activity, furnish students and teachers a democratic medium of expression on University problems, and provide students with an opportunity to express their writing talent. The 1989-90 staff includes: Steven Smith, Editor; Alison Green, Arts and Entertainment; Nina Gunther, News and Features; Nathan McCarty, Cartoonist; Kim Carter, Layout Coordinator; Heath Dollar, Sports; Shannon Sims, Photographer; Janet Zamecki, Ad Manager; Cathy Aiton and Stephanie Molnar, Typesetters.

"The Southwestern Magazine" provides a vehicle for the ideas, opinions, and creative efforts of the total University community. It is published annually. The Editor is Sally Swartz. Her staff consists of Mary Gamel, Xenia Wolff, and Noelle Burch.

The Sou'wester is the Southwestern University yearbook. It is a pictorial record of the college year including extracurricular and academic pursuits. The Yearbook Editor for 1989-90 is Kelli Alexis Holloway.

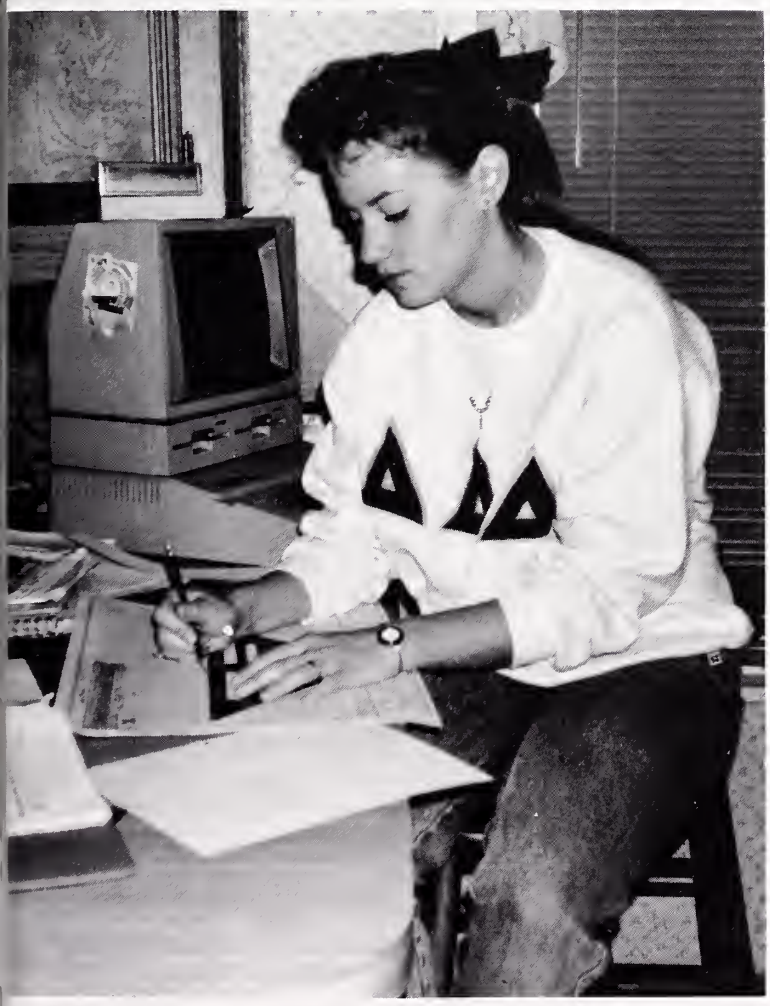
"The Southwestern Magazine" staff (left to right): Sally Swartz, Mary Gamel, Xenia Wolff, and Noelle Burch.



The Editor-in-Chief of the Southwestern yearbook, The Sou'wester, Kelli Holloway.

THE MASK AND WIG PLAYERS

THE COMPANY

The Mask and Wig Players is the Southwestern University drama society. They present theatrical performances throughout the year. The enlightening 1989-90 season contains "The Miss Firecracker Contest", "Death Of A Salesman", "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas", "The Sneeze" and other plays and stories.
